Registration Process

The registration has three parts. First all contestants need to create their own account (if they don't have one already) as described in part 1. Then any coach from the institute can follow the second part to create a team. Finally, the last part is the completion of the payment procedure, which will confirm the team about their successful registration process.

As contestant:

1. Go to <https://icpc.global>
2. Login to your account/ register for a new account
3. Verify your account via email if you haven't already
4. Go to the profile from the top right option pane and complete every required field
5. Then the coach of the team can create a team with you as a participant
6. For further instructions, check the website for the contestants:

Eligibility for The ICPC Dhaka Regional 2020

If a team wishes to qualify for the ICPC World Finals, then before competing in ANY regional qualifying event, the coach and all team members must be fully registered in the ICPC Registration System. A qualifying contest is one that allows teams to be promoted to a higher level and which is supervised by faculty. An online contest that is unsupervised may not be classified as a qualifying contest. Registration may not be done retrospectively. Incomplete registration or circumvention that leads to incomplete or false data is grounds for immediate disqualification. For further information, go to the official website of ICPC, <https://icpc.global/regionals/rules>

For foreign Teams: Particularly, in this pandemic situation, all the foreign teams should consider the criteria for ICPC Dhaka Regional 2020. Only teams from Bhutan, Maldives, Nepal, and Srilanka can participate in the ICPC Dhaka Regional 2020 Contest as the qualifying event.*
